

PRESENTING WITH POWER

Overview

This course is designed to provide advanced presentation skills for those who want to raise their game and already present as part of their role. It builds on skills learned in the standard Presentation Skills course so that participants can give their presentations the wow factor; it will include filming of presentations and self-assessment to complement that process.

Who is it for?

For those individuals who already deliver presentations on a fairly regular basis and would like to enhance those skills and learn more advanced techniques to deliver powerful and memorable presentations.

Course content to include...

- Presenting best practice
- How to use body language and tonality to influence at an advanced level
- Gaining group rapport and dealing with hecklers
- Designing and delivering metaphors and stories to engage audiences
- Utilising learning styles to engage any audience
- Managing different areas of the stage to control audience state
- Using non-verbal cues to elicit predictable responses in the audience
- Gaining audience compliance and handling difficult questions
- Eliciting & managing states in an audience
- Reading audience body language

By the end of the course learners will be able to...

- Improve level of presence
- Take presentations to the next level
- Learn & use techniques of master orators

"Very useful course, very enjoyable whilst learning lots that can actually use in day to day job."
